Q: How can i use with jquery's.submit()? I have a problem with jquery, i want to use an ajax post request with form (because user must select some data first) and return the data to the form. it all works fine, until i use submit because it post the data before the form, so it cannot post. How can i return the data with jquery submit? here is my code : function getCurrentUser(e){ var str = $('form').serializeArray(); $.ajax({ url : "ajax_get_current_user.php", type : "POST", data : str, dataType : "text", success : function(data){ console.log(data); $('div.response_box').empty(); $('div.response_box').append(data); }, error : function() {
